The Friends of The Brookfield Library exist solely to enhance The Brookfield Library.
We provide funding for materials, services, and programs that the library couldn't otherwise afford.

Membership dues and book sale proceeds purchased the following for the library:

- Museum passes to the Beardsley Zoo, Discovery Museum, Danbury Railway Museum, Stepping Stones Museum for Children, Stamford Museum and Nature Center, New Britain Museum of Art, The Children's Museum, EverWonder and the Peabody at Yale
- Membership in the Friends of CT Library
- An annual subscription to Ancestry.com, a genealogy database
- A yearly subscription to Book Page to help you select new titles to read
- Chair covers for the Children's Corner
- Zinio Magazine subscriptions to download
- DVDs for the Teen collection

The Friends Hosted:

- ✓ A summer Book Sale at Center School
- ✓ A Table at the Brookfield Farmers Market
- ✓ Small Business Saturday Holiday Shopping and Mini-Book Sale

Thank You for supporting
The Friends of The Brookfield
Library – and your library.

The Friends meet on the 1st Tuesday of each month at 6:30 p.m. in the library. (Check the library's online calendar to confirm date and time)
Please join us - your input is greatly appreciated

The Friends:

- Provided refreshments throughout the year for the always popular concerts
- Paid for sewing class instructor
- Sponsored the Frankenstein program by the North Shore Theatre Group
- Paid for the Stephen Spignesi "Close Encounters" program
- Funded the Moki Kekoris Arctic program and the Mark Albertson Pearl Harbor presentation
- Funded the Ashcroft Irish Academy Dance exhibition
- Co-sponsored an adult program with the Brookfield Garden Club, "Spring Wildflowers of the Northeast"

Programs funded for children and teens:

We supported the Children's Summer Reading program performers, reading supplies and incentives; we also provided funding for Young Adult Reading including two young adult programs by Louis DiCarro.
