The Friends of The Brookfield Library exist solely to enhance The Brookfield Library. We provide funding for materials, services, and programs beyond that which is in the Library's budget.

Membership dues and book sale proceeds purchase the following for the library:

- Museum passes to the Beardsley Zoo, Stamford Museum and Nature Center, New Britain Museum of Art, The Children's Museum and Roaring Brook Nature Center, EverWonder Children's Museum, USS Constitution, Wadsworth Atheneum, White Memorial Conservation and the Institute for American Indian Studies
- Membership in the Friends of CT Libraries
- An annual subscription to Ancestry.com, a genealogy database
- A yearly subscription to Book Page to help you select new titles to read

The Friends Hosted:

- ✓ Pop-up Book Sales at the library
- ✓ Craft Fair on the Lawn
- ✓ A Table at the Brookfield Farmers Market

The Friends group is looking for officers, members and Volunteers of all ages!

The library relies on the fundraising of The Friends of the Library to supplement their program and book budget. The Friends are a critical organization for the library. Here is your opportunity to get involved in a meaningful way with an association that directly benefits your own local community.

The Friends:

- Sponsor "One Town One Read"
- Sponsor Summer Reading programs

Programs funded for children and teens:

We support the Children's Summer Reading program performers, reading supplies and incentives; we also provide funding for Young Adult Reading.

How Volunteers can help:

- Sorting books at Book Sales
- Running the booth at the Farmers Market
- Researching "Old" books
